Trevor Waring Memorial Lecture

Please join us for a special event including a keynote address on Doing better: What the science of implementation can tell us about changing practice, presented by internationally recognised expert in implementation science and knowledge translation, Dr Melanie Barwick. The presentation will introduce implementation science, describe why we fail at implementing evidence into practice, and how implementation science can help us do better at practice change. The presentation will be followed by a Q&A session and networking lunch.

10:00am - 2:00pm Tuesday, 4 February 2020

Noah's on the Beach, 29 Zaara Street, Newcastle NSW 2300

*This event is free however registration is essential as seats are limited.
